

WASHINGTON STAR

March 18, 1964

FOIAB3B

Nolting to Join Banking Concern

By the Associated Press

RICHMOND, Va., Mar. 18 (AP).—Frederick E. Nolting, jr., former ambassador to South Viet Nam, says he will retire from the State Department and enter private business in two or three months.

Mr. Nolting, of Richmond, said yesterday he will become a vice president in the international division of Morgan Guaranty Trust Co.

Mr. Nolting, 52, was replaced as ambassador to South Viet Nam in June by Henry Cabot Lodge.

NEW YORK TIMES

MAR 19 1964

Nolting Leaves Diplomacy To Enter Private Business

WASHINGTON, March 18 (AP)—Frederick E. Nolting Jr., former ambassador to South Vietnam, has resigned from the Foreign Service to enter private business, the State Department said today.

The 52-year-old career diplomat was succeeded in Saigon last August by Henry Cabot Lodge.

Mr. Nolting served almost 2½ years in Vietnam. Since his return, he has served as an adviser, and has also been appointed to a special White House committee looking into operations of the Central Intelligence Agency.

RICHMOND, VA. NEWS LEADER

e. 120,884

Front Page	Edit Page	Other Page
---------------	--------------	---------------

Date:

Former Envoy To Speak Here

Frederick E. Nolting Jr., former ambassador to Vietnam, will address the 58th annual business luncheon of the Retail Merchants Association of Richmond at the Hotel John Marshall tomorrow at 12:30 p.m.

Nolting, a former Richmonder who presently serves as special counsel to the Central Intelligence Agency, will speak on foreign affairs and its relation to our economy.

Preceding the luncheon, members will elect officers and directors for the coming year.